

YOU'RE INVITED

Join the PEER MENTORING GROUP

Would you like to be part of a group of volunteers, developing an ALDinHE peer mentoring programme and sharing professional expertise in the field of learning development?

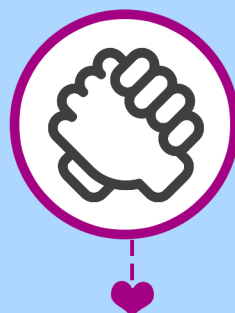

Time Required

Monthly meetings take place via video conferencing. You'll need to be willing and able to devote sufficient time and commitment.

Skills Required

You'll need to be approachable, constructive and supportive. Have good access to resources and contacts. Be willing to challenge ideas and thinking. Skilled in and enthusiastic about learning development.

Gain Experience

This is a chance to step outside of normal route to become more objective. You'll benefit from knowledge exchange, personal learning and reflection. You'll develop new insights and contribute positively to individual development.

Roles and Responsibilities

Working group activities include developing clear mentoring models and guidelines, acting as a trusted adviser and collaborating with the learning development community to support the integration of peer mentoring into the practices of HEIs.

If you are interested in joining the peer mentoring group and would like to discuss further, please email admin@aldinhe.ac.uk
