

YOU'RE INVITED

Join the PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION GROUP

Would you like to be part of a group of volunteers, supporting formal and professional recognition of learning development achievement?

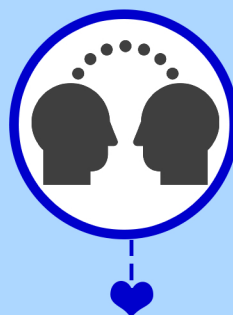

Time Required

The group establishes and maintains a plan of activities to action all year round. Monthly meetings take place via video conferencing.

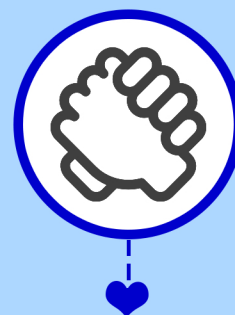

Skills Required

You'll need excellent coordination skills and be action oriented with a commitment to outcomes. Have good interpersonal skills and the ability to challenge thinking, encourage reflection and offer practical advice. Have exposure to broader perspectives in LD.

Gain Experience

This is a chance to step outside of normal routine and support peers from a different institution. You'll benefit from knowledge exchange, personal learning and reflection. You'll develop new insights and contribute positively to professional recognition in learning development.

Roles and Responsibilities

Support the professional recognition of those working in learning development. Review applications and act as a critical friend. Assist in professional recognition activities, such as, writing retreats to develop CeP and CeLP applications.

If you are interested in joining the professional recognition group and would like to discuss further, please email admin@aldinhe.ac.uk
